Golden Award for James Morton – CIM Dividend Income Fund

We are pleased to announce that James Morton was honoured with a special Golden Award at the Sauren Golden Awards event in Frankfurt on 6 September 2018 in the category "Equity Emerging Markets" and two gold medals in the category "Asia Equity" for the CIM Dividend Income Fund.

The Sauren Golden Award recognise the exceptional investment management achievements and is awarded in various categories. The award was presented to the best of the best amongst the most talented fund managers during the Sauren Golden Awards Ceremony. For the year 2018, a total of only eight Sauren Golden Awards were presented. The selection is made by the Sauren Fonds-Research AG based upon the qualitative assessment of the fund manager as well as considering his performance in the recent years and in particular at the beginning of 2018.

Sandrine Reynaud who attended the Sauren ceremony said: "We have been working with CIM and James Morton since 2015, I am delighted that James received this well-deserved accolade from the fund industry. He has demonstrated over his 40 years of experience, consistency of investment philosophy and delivered great performance for his investors."

CIM Dividend Income fund has delivered 15.4% 3 years annualised and 23% 2 years annualised including a 6% dividend yield. The fund already holds a 5 stars Morningstar category Asia Pacific ex Japan Equity income.
